THE MISSOURI

FUCK

NO!!!

are you reading this magazine for when there is revolutionary shit need be done?

Before you perform any action regarding revolutionary action, NEVER weigh in the undesirable consequences and you will find the only consequences you have are favorable. Immediate and swift reaction limits your adversary's arsenal.

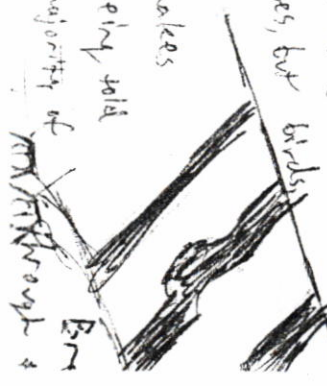

A shadow of insurrection is congregating around the town of Columbia....

Why the American Empire Needs Armed Resistance,

The US military machine is the large for us even to guess. Those who are in power ~~want~~ want to stay in power. Shooting back at a cop will get you a tank and firebomb. Also the government controls the technology, so fuck you ~~that~~ cause your revolution will come till you resist higher, more advanced forms of defense than your enemy. Saying "we don't have to kill, we just need to protect. The American Empire has no notion of collapsing without a fight" so it is now open in this day to organize better defense. This means we need to take it upon ourselves to provide "services governments already do, start designating 'no cop zones' via religious/moral reasons. Pass property laws that state any company failing to adequately provide for employees or leave a building vacant for so many months the property is automatically deemed public property or the public to take the initiative to do with as they wish. Not a direct or representative decision but an actual physical decision. We need European squat laws in the states but until then expand co-ops and programs to start offensive teams and excellent video journalism. Practice not only private radio but pirate tv with free information networks. As large affinity groups we can start creating a liberation army whose sole duty is to fight the state and authority wherever they be. The US has not been shared with large scale protest so they face the ~~state~~ at our guns!

Take copyrights! Reprint this, migrate it to make room for your improv and pass it along! Toss on it! Fuck on it! Defend on it! Other cops in and resistance to state force because you are free to share.

It's time we started teaching our own brothers and sisters to fucking government! The government thrives on in-fighting & can be arbitrary resolution makers. If we start solving on by ourselves there is no need for a fucking government. So "you're" have unlocked for travellers and "homeless" people sharing meals/food with your neighbors, start reclaiming with week long block parties and festivals. Zines should be produced by everyone. Massive collaborations of intellectual and hours of comedic fun. Marijuana seedlings planted in the cracks sidewalks and bricks ~~through~~ in windows to make room for flowers and shrubs. Community gardens and full 24/7 ExB for travellers and freed slaves of wages. The only thing left to do is to fuck over corporate America as much as possible. Now a revolution will find this particularly easy as one merely needs to and retooling. Speed limit signs should be taken down while jackhammered up. Equipped with flaming arrows a talented could easily and secretly incinerate billboards—Missouri's bi-ecological disaster as it robs people everyday they pass to write heavy, controls their minds, and last but probably the most important the environment over considerably. Plants with noticeable ep smokestacks should be capped and pressure from the hot vapors up exploding the Dr. Deaths of our mutually-shared atmosphere. People would protest but you must remember that we share the with more than just your friend and future friends of ashore heart disease, lung cancer, skin diseases, but birds, fishes, and everything else that is alive in this world. America makes are fucking sick and I'm fed up being told to love it or leave it! So are the majority of people and we all want change!

weed is incredibly hard to fuck up when growing. OK so you want be getting the best dankness kind, hydro but you will definitely be having mass thoughts of insurrection and destruction of the shit. As far shows even you make the subtle art of not undermining your shit you can literally start producing pounds every month in a very small space such as a dresser or closet. B

For growing weed seeds gather 10 or 20 seeds from your current batch. Don't seed money in for professional seeds. You will support capitalism and risk getting busted. If seed banks were serious about weed revolution they'd seed free seed balls to anyone who asked and probably dump them from a plane over remote places. I myself would like to obtain kooky outdoor mushrooms - spores, make a syringe and fill up a squirt gun and shoot up the town cause pipes don't know every shroom of ways with your seeds see them spread again on a paper towel that damp and the set marker one on top. Put two places on the outside to make a ufo shape. Don't have it wet as seedlings can suffocate with too much water. After a couple of days take the seeds with white mits and plant them. Don't allow the seedlings to have too long of roots through before planting because it will have used up its stored nutrients. Now you need a long if growing indoors. A regular fluorescent won't cut it but the lights found at your local Haysite such as a police department, library, or courthouse work beautifully. Don't forget to raise your own black flag and leave a challenge out message explaining your helping to protect an endangered species.

Liberate the Drugs!

In the past couple of years John Ashcroft et al, have opened up a new front on the "war on drugs" which could easily be referred to as the battle for free thought. It's time we get off our ass and started doing something. Why support capitalism when simultaneously getting ripped off from a dealer? Why not have free A/T access to marijuana, psilocybin, acid, etc? This country is ruled by fear. Ask anyone to take part in their freedom and they'll readily respond by saying it's too much risk of going to jail. Fuck that! Indoor, grow ops, especially shrooms, are incredibly easy to hide and here it takes almost no money to do why not distribute it freely? Why not roll up two joints and head downtown. Find some people you don't know and light up then pass to. Give them the other joint and ask them if they'd do the same to another stranger. Most people are over enough by your example to follow but if not that's cool because it's one more person saying "fuck you" to rules and regulations.

Living away weed is an exhilarating experience and it reminds you how easy change is if you start taking the first steps. Remember, to change the world you have to change yourself first. The government knows organic drugs such as weed and shrooms give the individual courage and determination to stand up for theirs and others' human rights. They realize that drugs are a more immediate diversive tool than the written word is now. So grow it and give it away free! If you hear stories say in the police section of a newspaper of someone getting busted ~~for~~ don't make fun of them for being stupid--

Carry a spray paint can with you at all times. When you think a distressing thought write it down expressing bold words immediately. "The ground you are standing on is a liberated zone. Defend it!"

Where's the Missouri Anarchy support? I had a request to the West to broaden my experiences and discovered that but a piece of the state, along with every wannabe co-conspirator of the Missouri/Mississippi Rivers where rolling give but sparse flower life as all fauna have vanished the hell is the FF! of Missouri? It is high time we're fucking bureaucratic devils and corporate rapers no more! On any harm towards the Earth will result in financial hopelessly mental damage <sup>100%</sup> towards them. You strip more mine we will blow your digging equipment sky high. Beloved fucking Lake that is stagnant and unhealthy will be no more. The dam (Bagnell) will be blown is only a matter of time. The state continuously talks of its Homeland Security to provide against domestic terrorism. Don't they have it switched around? There was a advanced civilization here 4000 years ago and now we can even name who lived in this region before. I was before a tribunal the entire American regime for high against humanity. Punishment: Dissolution, for humans large a peaceful people. Maybe that is why some of us strong and resilient against the vile and hidden of this current state.

the labor movement was finally making a stand in pubescent empirical capitalism initiative. Funny, read about this in school, eh? In Chicago there were at 10,000-20,000 strong armies of fighters willing to defend their sisters/brothers against the brutal practices Chicago police and big businesses. Huge parades with rifles and torches were proudly carried to show who big dick. Of course America being the fucker it is a bring down a couple cavalry divisions fresh from native massacres to "control" the situation and the city go personally bought two Gatling guns - the precursor machine gun, but think of them for size proportion anon. It's time to fight back! Fuck this lawyer-ugue and prison support shits. Light a fire and burn it! Build a tunnel and get your sisters/brothers out of extrather/brainwash camps known as correctional facilities. anarchists are not the typical bomb-toting black-clad the public perceives them as. True, every American + "I know doesn't tote bombs. We are an extremely peace of people. Well, fuck that! I can not stand smoking weed to ease my conscience while I know shit is going around. Throw that fucking bomb! People like to dash cop fires. That's cool but why are? America is the only fucking country in the where everyone "has" it.

many, many more, including toxic items of transportation known as the car. Slash them all! You know many, many people that smoke marijuana in this town, Colorado. So the "Hunk for Hemp" comes out every now and then but what about massive smoke-ins? What are they going to do arrest 300 people? They don't have enough building space for that shit! An one that does get arrested needs to be freed immediately through any means necessary. Next tactics from the G. deons need to be recognized. Educate your younger sisters/brothers by leaflets: important issues at your local high school. Make sure to include pertinent advice on dropping out, organizing, allyship, groups, attacking drug-testings and dress codes vehemently and for fuck sake get those legal things - pils - out of those institutes. Demand an end to the bare and related programs. Demand student participation in All school board meetings. Perform street theater, drama, prose at any and all times. Make use of public space and have high disrespect/disregard for private property. Kids, before they become conditioned to America are some of the smartest motherfuckers on this planet. Try learning from them.

Liberation by any means necessary.
